

0 - Prologue - The Gossip of the Market Place	3:02
1 - Pawn on a Chessboard of Kings	12:09
2 - A Question of Thrones	17:55
3 - The Long Road to Aviero	11:09
4 - A Gown for a Princess	15:14
5 - Thorns for a Crown	12:28
6 - The Glory of the King's Daughter	10:25
7 - Crowns	10:48
8 - Epilogue - The Market Place 1490	6:36

Recording by Maria Therese

Total running time 1:49:46

This recording is in the public domain

Cover art from an illustration in the original book. Cover design by Maria Therese.
This design is in the public domain.

LibriVox

A Crown For Joanna

Sister Mary Jean Dorcy, O.P.

Sister Mary Jean Dorcy, O.P.

A Crown for Joanna

A Crown for Joanna By Sister Mary Jean Dorcy, O.P.

She was born a princess, heir to her father's kingdom of Portugal, and she might at will have reigned from almost any throne in Europe. But instead of this, she made what to her world seemed a thoroughly mad choice – for she chose to have a throne in heaven. Today those scepters are dust which she would not accept, and as Blessed Joanna of Portugal she possesses a throne imperishable...

This children's biography of Blessed Joanna of Portugal was written by Sister Mary Jean Dorcy, a Catholic Dominican Nun. The author is probably best known for her exquisitely intricate paper cutting silhouettes, with which she illustrated her books..

LibriVox

Sister Mary Jean Dorcy, O.P.

A Crown for Joanna